

Frequently Asked Questions – Business Partners, Retailers, and Vendors

Q: Why should I continue to do business with CBL?

A: CBL is going through this process in order to emerge a stronger and more successful organization. We are excited to continue working with our valued partners as we move through this process. We have the liquidity available to continue operating as normal and are continuing to pay our vendors.

Q: Are CBL's malls closing?

A: No. CBL's properties will continue to operate throughout the restructuring process. There will be no disruption to our operations during this time.

Q: Will CBL continue to honor its contracts?

A: Yes.

Q: Will I be paid for goods and services provided to CBL?

A: Yes. Invoices can be submitted through the normal channels and will continue to be paid per the terms of the contract.

Q: Will CBL pay invoices according to the same schedule that was used prior to signing the RSA?

A: Yes, any invoices for goods or services following the filing date will be paid per the terms of the contract.

Q: Will CBL continue to order goods and services from its vendors?

A: Yes.

Q: Will CBL re-evaluate current contracts or attempt to renegotiate contracts moving forward?

A: CBL plans to honor all existing contracts.
